Mild Umami, pleasant acidity, light & dry; clean and easy to drink

JUNMAI

SUIJIN | "GOD OF WATER"

Iwate, Japan | SMV: + 10 Acidity: 1.5

Extremely dry and aromatic but with a delicate mouthfeel & superb complexity.

JUNMAI GINJO

HAKUSHIKA | "WHITE DEER"

Hyogo, Japan | SMV: + 1 Acidity: 1.4

Mild and dry in taste and with a fresh, fruity ginjo flavor and full body, this is a well-balanced sake with substantial character

JUNMAI DAIGINJO

ECHIGOZAKURA SHUZO ★

Chubo, Japan | SMV: +0.5 | Acidity: 1.3

This Junmai Daiginjo is elegant and refined, with aromas of white peach, melon, and soft floral notes. Its silky palate reveals pear, lychee, and a touch of rice sweetness, ending in a clean, refreshing finish.

KONTEKI | 'PEARLS OF SIMPLICITY'★

Kyoto, Japan | SMV: + 2 | Acidity: 1.5

The epitome of purity, this sake is more subtle and nuanced than most highly aromatic Junmai Daiginjos. It is based on the ideals of Zen Buddhism and "wabi-sabi," the belief that beauty within the arts should be as understated and pure as a simple strand of pearls

WAKATAKE ONIKOROSHI | "DEMON SLAYER"

Shizuoka, Japan | SMV: + 0 | Acidity: 1.5

This Demon Slayer is a semi-fruity brew with a unique dryness that speaks to wine drinkers

NIGORI

HAKUTSURU SAYURI | "LITTLE LILY"

Hyogo, Japan | SMV: -11 | Acidity: 1.6

Little Lily, named for it's soft and floral notes has hints of white grape and elements of cherry blossom tie in seamlessly to create a lush, creamy sake with a deliciously smooth finish

JOTO | "THE BLUE ONE"

Hiroshima, Japan | SMV: - 3 | Acidity: N/A

A creamy, lightly sweet nigori sake with notes of tropical and stone fruits, pear, banana, and dates, plus subtle hints of coconut and earthiness. It has a soft, full-bodied texture with low acidity, making it a food-friendly choice

RIHAKU | "DREAMY CLOUDS"

Shimane, Japan | SMV: + 3 | Acidity: 1.6

Although nigori sake is traditionally thought of as rich, sweet and creamy, Rihaku is the first brewery in Japan to make a dry, elegant style of nigori with notes of yuzu, melon, and steamed rice.

HOT SAKE

Add a Flavor: Purple (Raspberry), Lychee, Ginger, Elderflower, Umeshu

SMV: Measures sake's sweetness or dryness (– = sweet, + = dry).

Acidity: Indicates sake's crispness and balance (lower = softer, higher = sharper).

PREMIUM SAKE BOTTLES:

IMAYO TSUKASA 'BLACK' JUNMAI

Niigata, Japan +15 (extra dry)

The Story:

Imayo Tsukasa 'Black' Junmai is a refined and modern expression of Niigata's classic sake style, crafted by the historic Imayo Tsukasa Brewery, founded in 1767. True to the region's reputation for clean, elegant sakes, this Junmai is made using local Niigata rice and pure soft water from the prefecture's snow-fed sources. The sleek black bottle symbolizes both tradition and sophistication—reflecting the brewery's balance between time-honored methods and contemporary craftsmanship.

Tasting Notes:

This Junmai opens with subtle aromas of steamed rice, white flowers, and a hint of green apple. On the palate, it is dry and smooth, with delicate umami and notes of pear, melon, and rice bran. The texture is supple yet crisp, showcasing the signature Niigata lightness and precision. A faint nuttiness and mineral undertone linger through the clean, refreshing finish. Versatile and food-friendly, Imayo Tsukasa Black pairs beautifully with sushi, grilled fish, or light vegetable dishes, offering understated depth and elegant restraint in every sip.

Awards: Gold medal in the Sake Category at the International Wine Challenge (IWC)

TAKACHIYO 59 'CHAPTER FIVE' JUNMAI GINJO

Niigata, Japan +1 (dry)

The Story:

Takachiyo 59 Chapter 5 is a vibrant, contemporary sake that reflects the brewery's innovative spirit and meticulous craftsmanship, brewed with rice polished to 59% for enhanced purity and expression. Designed to emphasize freshness, balance, and approachability, this sake bridges modern style with traditional technique, offering a polished profile that appeals equally to seasoned sake enthusiasts and those discovering premium sake for the first time.

Tasting Notes:

The nose opens with inviting aromas of yuzu, ripe melon, pear, and soft tropical fruit, accented by a hint of floral lift. On the palate, a silky texture carries flavors of juicy stone fruit, subtle sweetness, and gentle rice umami, balanced by lively acidity. The finish is clean and lightly dry, leaving a refreshing impression that encourages another sip and pairs effortlessly with a wide range of dishes.

The "Morinokumasan" rice used in the Takachiyo 59 Chapter 5 sake is notable because it has been awarded the best tasting rice in Japan by the Japanese Grain Inspection Association.

BENTEN GOKUJO DAIGINJO

Yamagata, Japan +4 (dry)

The Story:

Benten Gokujō Daiginjo is an exquisite expression of Niigata's famed sake craftsmanship, that is hard to find outside of Japan or France's finest restaurants. Made with premium Yamadanishiki rice polished to an impressive 35%, this sake embodies the brewery's commitment to precision, purity, and elegance. Brewed using only soft snowmelt water from Mount Kakuda, in the Echigo Mountains, and fermented at low temperatures, Benten Gokujō captures the delicate balance and refinement that define Japan's highest grade of sake.

Tasting Notes:

Aromatically graceful, this Daiginjo opens with enticing notes of white peach, melon, pear, and a whisper of jasmine. On the palate, it is silky and impeccably smooth, offering layers of ripe stone fruit, subtle citrus, and a touch of anise. The texture is luxuriously soft, gliding effortlessly into a clean, dry, and lingering finish. Crisp minerality and understated sweetness highlight its exceptional purity, making Benten Gokujō a sublime pairing with sashimi, shellfish, or enjoyed on its own as a quiet moment of perfection.

Awards: Gold Medal at The Fine Sake Awards: Japan

The savory palate features apricot, lemon drop and saline alongside a tangy acidity.

SOMMELIER SPECIAL - BUBBLES

CANTINA SANTA MARIA LA PALMA 'AKÈNTA SUB' 90
Sardinia, Italy | 100% Vermentino

The Story: Akènta Sub (the underwater sparkling wine), crafted by Cantina Santa Maria La Palma, is a rare and exquisite Vermentino di Sardegna DOC sparkling wine, refined in an extraordinary way beneath the sea. Selected bottles are submerged at approximately 40 meters in the pristine waters of Porto Conte Natural Park, off the coast of Alghero, Sardinia, where they age for 6 to 12 months under constant pressure, low light, and stable temperature. This underwater maturation imparts a unique elegance, resulting in a wine of exceptional quality, intensity, and exclusivity—a true collector's treasure and a memorable gift.

Tasting Notes: In the glass, Akènta Sub reveals a brilliant pale straw-yellow hue with delicate green reflections and a fine, persistent perlage. The bouquet is fragrant and layered, offering aromas of white and yellow flowers, fresh citrus zest, ripe stone fruits, and subtle hints of bread crust and nuttiness. On the palate, it is fresh, smooth, and well-balanced, with a soft, creamy texture and a lively yet refined effervescence. The underwater aging imparts a remarkable sapid and slightly salty complexity, accompanied by a bright citrus finish and distinct mineral notes. Every sip reflects its unique journey beneath the sea, offering an unforgettable tasting experience.

ROSE

CHATEAU D'ESCLANS 2021 'LES CLANS' 75
Côtes de Provence, France | Grenache & Rolle (Vermentino)

The 2021 Les Clans is an elegant, dry, limited-production rosé from Château d'Esclans in the Cotes de Provence region of France. Made from old-vine Grenache and Rolle (Vermentino) grapes, it offers aromas of red berries, white flowers, and citrus blossom, with palate flavors of ripe peaches, strawberries, and a hint of oak. The wine is characterized by a silky, full-bodied texture, crisp acidity, and a long, mineral-driven finish.

Rating: James Suckling 94 points

CHÂTEAU D'ESCLANS 2023 'GARRUS' 110
Côtes de Provence, France | Grenache & Rolle (Vermentino)

The Story: 'THE MOST EXCLUSIVE ROSE IN THE WORLD' The 2022 Château d'Esclans "Garrus" represents the pinnacle of Provençal rosé—an icon of precision, elegance, and power. Crafted from nearly century-old Grenache vines and a small portion of Vermentino, this remarkable wine is fermented and aged in large French oak barrels, resulting in a rosé of extraordinary depth and sophistication. Garrus is the flagship expression of Château d'Esclans, embodying the artistry and vision of Sacha Lichine in redefining what rosé can be.

Tasting Notes: In the glass, it reveals a delicate, pale peach hue with brilliant clarity. The bouquet unfolds in layers—white peach, apricot, and citrus zest intertwined with hints of vanilla, spice, and toasted brioche from oak aging. On the palate, Garrus is both powerful and graceful, offering a creamy texture balanced by vibrant acidity and a refined mineral backbone. Flavors of ripe stone fruit, citrus, and subtle floral tones evolve into a long, elegant finish with notes of saline freshness and gentle spice. The 2022 vintage is opulent yet poised—a rosé of grand cru pedigree that continues to set the standard for luxury and longevity in Provence.

Rating: James Suckling 95 points

WINE | BY THE GLASS: WHITE

DOMAINE DU PRÉ SEMELÉ | SANCERRE 22/87

Loire Valley, France | 100% Sauvignon Blanc

Elegant and precise, Domaine du Pré Semelé Sancerre expresses classic Loire Valley Sauvignon Blanc with aromas of citrus peel, white flowers, and crushed stone. The palate is bright and mineral-driven, revealing layers of lemon, green apple, and subtle herbaceous notes that lead to a clean, refreshing finish.

JUSTIN | SAUVIGNON BLANC 15/60

Central Coast, California | 100% SAUVIGNON BLANC

Fresh and expressive, Justin Sauvignon Blanc highlights California's Central Coast with vibrant aromas of citrus blossom, grapefruit, and fresh-cut herbs. The palate is crisp and lively, offering flavors of lime, green melon, and subtle minerality that carry through to a clean, refreshing finish.

CLINE 'HAT STRAP' LOS CARNEROS | CHARDONNAY 14/56

Sonoma, California | 100% Chardonnay

Rich yet balanced, Cline Hat Strap Los Carneros Chardonnay showcases cool-climate elegance with aromas of ripe apple, pear, and subtle toasted oak. The palate is creamy and layered, revealing notes of baked orchard fruit, vanilla, and a touch of citrus, finishing smooth and refined with refreshing acidity.

SOMMELIER SPECIAL - WHITE

CHARLES JOGUET | 'LA PLANTE MARTIN' CHINON BLANC 18/72

Loire Valley, France | 100% Chenin Blanc

The Story: Charles Joguet's 2019 La Plante Martin Chinon Blanc is a refined and expressive example of Loire Valley Chenin Blanc, shaped by the estate's signature restraint and respect for terroir. Grown on gravelly soils near the Vienne River, this wine highlights Chinon's lesser-known but compelling white wine tradition, offering clarity, balance, and quiet complexity. Thoughtfully crafted to emphasize freshness and texture, it delivers an elegant alternative to its red counterpart, with both immediate charm and subtle depth.

Tasting Notes: Bright aromas of green apple, pear, and quince are lifted by hints of white flowers and citrus zest. The palate is crisp yet gently textured, revealing flavors of lemon curd, orchard fruit, and wet stone, supported by vibrant acidity. A subtle honeyed note emerges on the lingering finish, adding warmth and finesse while maintaining a clean, mineral-driven close.

WINE | BOTTLE ONLY: WHITE

RIVETTO 2019 LANGHE NASCETTA VIGNA LIRANO 90

Piedmont, Italy | 100% Nascetta

The Story: The 2019 Rivetto Langhe Nascetta "Vigna Lirano" is a rare and expressive white wine that captures the soul of Piedmont through one of its most distinctive native varieties. Grown in the estate's organically farmed Vigna Lirano vineyard overlooking Serralunga d'Alba, this Nascetta reflects Rivetto's deep commitment to authenticity and terroir-driven winemaking. Fermented and aged on fine lees, then partially aged in terracotta, it reveals both texture and aromatic complexity, resulting in a wine of remarkable depth and elegance.

Tasting Notes: Brilliant straw-yellow in color with golden reflections, the wine opens with a captivating bouquet of white flowers, citrus zest, and ripe pear, evolving into delicate notes of honey, herbs, and crushed stone. On the palate, it is layered and textural, with a vibrant acidity that balances its gentle richness. Flavors of orchard fruit, lemon peel, and subtle salinity lead to a long, mineral-driven finish that lingers with grace and precision. The 2019 "Vigna Lirano" is a sophisticated and contemplative white—an exceptional example of Nascetta's ability to combine freshness, structure, and age-worthy complexity.

Rating: James Suckling 92 points

SOMMELIER SPECIAL - WHITE

ROBERT MONDAVI TO KALON VINEYARD 2022 | RESERVE FUME BLANC 99

Oakville, CA | 90% Fume Blanc (Sauvignon Blanc) 10% Semillon

The Story: Robert Mondavi Reserve Fumé Blanc To Kalon Vineyard 2022 is a refined Napa Valley expression sourced from the legendary To Kalon Vineyard, showcasing the winery's signature balance of richness and freshness. Crafted in the classic Fumé Blanc style, this wine highlights the depth and intensity of Sauvignon Blanc grown in one of Napa's most celebrated sites, with thoughtful oak aging adding texture and complexity while preserving the vineyard's vibrant character.

Tasting Notes: The nose opens with lifted aromas of ripe mango, citrus blossom, and stone fruit, layered with subtle herbal tones and a hint of wet stone minerality. On the palate, concentrated flavors of tropical fruit, lemon curd, and white peach are complemented by delicate notes of toasted oak and spice. Bright, energetic acidity provides structure and lift, leading to a long, polished finish that is both juicy and mineral-driven, offering elegance, depth, and remarkable balance.

WINE | BY THE GLASS: RED

(LISTED PROGRESSIVELY FROM LIGHT TO BOLD)

WHITE WALNUT ESTATE | PINOT NOIR 18/72

Dundee Hills, OR

Known for its elegant, balanced, and restrained style, featuring bright red and blue fruit flavors, earthy and floral notes, and fine tannins, with minimal intervention winemaking that emphasizes vineyard expression and transparency. Highlighting themes of wild berries, cherries, savory undertones, and a lingering minerality, all framed by crisp acidity.

TENUTA ROCCA | LANGHE NEBBIOLO 16/64

Piedmont, Italy

An organic, dry red wine from Piedmont, Italy, known for its elegant, complex, and fresh profile with notes of red fruits, violets, and roses, complemented by earthy undertones and a balanced, lithe, tannic structure. It is considered a "junior" version of Barolo and Barbaresco. The wine is characterized by its high acidity, high alcohol content, and a long, aromatic finish.

THE PAIRING | RED BLEND 18/72

Santa Ynez, CA | 60% Cab Sauvignon/19% Cabernet Franc/14% Merlot/7% Petit Verdot

A versatile, Cabernet Sauvignon-based red wine from California, noted for its blend of ripe dark fruit like blackberry and currant, savory notes of tobacco, earth, and herbs, and a classic Bordeaux-style structure with balanced tannins and bright acidity.

JUSTIN | CABERNET SAUVIGNON 15/60

Paso Robles, CA

Justin Cabernet Sauvignon 2022 is a polished expression of Paso Robles, balancing approachability with classic Cabernet structure. Aromas of ripe black cherry, cassis, and blackberry lead the way, layered with notes of vanilla bean, cedar, and subtle baking spice from well-integrated oak. On the palate, the wine is medium-bodied with supple tannins and a velvety texture, showcasing flavors of dark plum, cocoa, and toasted oak, accented by hints of mocha and warm spice. A touch of freshness keeps the wine lively, carrying through to a smooth, lingering finish that makes this Cabernet both immediately enjoyable and effortlessly versatile at the table.

SOMMELIER SPECIAL - RED

ROBERT MONDAVI 2022 'SPECIAL SELECT' NAPA VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON 18/72

*Los Carneros (Napa Valley), California
81% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Merlot, 7% Petit Verdot, 3% Cabernet Franc, 1% Malbec*

The Story: A classic and refined expression of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2022 Robert Mondavi embodies the winery's enduring commitment to balance, structure, and terroir. Crafted from select vineyards across Napa Valley, this wine reflects the region's hallmark combination of ripe fruit intensity and elegant restraint, shaped by warm days, cool evenings, and meticulous winemaking.

Tasting Notes: The nose opens with generous aromas of black cherry, cassis, and ripe blackberry, accented by layers of cedar, graphite, cocoa powder, and sweet baking spice. On the palate, concentrated dark fruit flavors are complemented by notes of vanilla, toasted oak, and a subtle hint of mocha. Fine-grained tannins and well-integrated acidity provide structure and polish, carrying through to a long, smooth finish with lingering savory and oak-driven nuances.

WINE | BOTTLE ONLY: RED

CASADEI 'FILARE 18' CABERNET FRANC 2020

Tuscany, Italy | 100% Cabernet France

The Story:

The 2020 Casadei Filare 18 Cabernet Franc is a refined Italian red that combines elegance, depth, and expressive varietal character. Crafted with meticulous care, this wine reflects the distinct terroir of its vineyards while showcasing the vibrant personality of Cabernet Franc.

Tasting Notes:

In the glass, it presents a deep garnet color with luminous highlights. The bouquet is rich and complex, offering aromas of ripe red and dark fruits—cherry, raspberry, and plum—interwoven with subtle herbal and floral notes typical of Cabernet Franc. On the palate, it is medium- to full-bodied, with a structured yet supple texture. Silky tannins provide support without overpowering, while flavors of ripe berries, gentle spice, and hints of tobacco evolve gracefully. The finish is long, layered, and aromatic, leaving a lasting impression of finesse and balance. This wine is ideal for both immediate enjoyment and careful aging, offering a refined expression of its varietal and Italian heritage.

Rating: James Suckling 92 points

CHATEAU STE MICHELLE 2018 ARTIST SERIES RED BLEND

Columbia Valley, Washington

69% Cabernet Sauvignon 28% Merlot 2% Malbec 1% Cab Franc

The Story:

The 2018 Chateau Ste. Michelle Artist Series Red Blend is a flagship expression of artistry—both in winemaking and design. Crafted from meticulously selected parcels across Washington's Columbia Valley, this wine exemplifies balance, depth, and elegance. The blend—anchored by Cabernet Sauvignon with Merlot, Malbec, and Cabernet Franc—reflects the estate's dedication to precision and beauty. Each vintage in the Artist Series is paired with original contemporary artwork, celebrating the seamless connection between fine art and fine wine.

Tasting Notes:

The 2018 vintage reveals captivating aromas of blackberry, black cherry, and dark plum interwoven with layers of cocoa, tobacco leaf, graphite, and subtle vanilla oak. The palate is plush and full-bodied, showcasing concentrated dark fruit and refined tannins that lend structure and grace. Hints of espresso and baking spice unfold toward a long, polished finish marked by freshness and complexity. This is a wine of harmony and sophistication—rich yet poised—offering exceptional aging potential and immediate appeal in the glass.

THE STORY:

Created in collaboration with Sushi Den, this limited-release rye is a bold expression of East meeting West. Locke + Co.'s signature Aspen Aged Rye is meticulously layered through an intricate aging process—new oak, charred aspen, ex-bourbon barrel, and rare Mizunara oak—resulting in a powerful yet elegant whiskey that bridges American rye tradition with Japanese influence.

TASTING NOTES:

A vibrant and complex nose opens with allspice, caramel, and citrus, unfolding into sandalwood, coconut, fresh herbs, incense, honey, and delicate florals. The palate is full-bodied and expressive, with bold rye spice balanced by rich bourbon sweetness, revealing notes of toffee, caramel, vanilla, and subtle herbal depth from the Mizunara wood. The finish is long and aromatic, lingering with caramel, vanilla, cinnamon, rye spice, and earthy tones of cedar and incense, leaving a warm, luxurious impression.
